

Mission Statement

Learning Matters Education Charity provides financial assistance to Canadian children who would not otherwise have the financial means to obtain a post-secondary education. Bursaries are made available to Canadian undergraduate post-secondary students with a stated objective to make a positive contribution to Canadian society, and who have a demonstrated financial need.

Bursary Details

Learning Matters is pleased to make available six bursaries across the country. Each bursary is valued at $2,500 and is to be applied towards the cost of tuition. Bursary recipients will be notified by August and the funds will be forwarded to the applicable post-secondary school by September.

Bursary Criteria

To be eligible, an applicant must be:

- A Canadian citizen or have landed immigrant status in Canada;
- Entering or enrolled in a full-time post-secondary undergraduate education program at a recognized Canadian post-secondary institution;
- Able to demonstrate financial need, and one or more of community involvement, academic excellence, and career objectives which will make a positive contribution in Canadian society.

Our preference is applications be submitted as a PDF, electronically addressed to awards@cst.org.

If you have to mail your application it should be addressed to:

Selection Process

1. Applications and all supporting information must be received by May 31, 2017. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered whether or not the delay was caused by the applicant.
2. Applications must be completed in black ink and should be accompanied by;
 - Most recent transcript showing academic performance;
 - Letter of acceptance into post-secondary program (where available);
 - Applicants summary of community involvement;
 - Applicant's essay regarding future application of their post-secondary education;
 - Two letters of recommendation.
3. Selection of the recipients will be undertaken by an Awards Selection Committee established by the Charity. As all decisions of the Committee are final, the Committee will not respond to requests for information from applicants that were not granted a bursary.
4. Applications will be considered on the basis of financial need and other factors including community involvement, academic excellence, and career objectives. A telephone interview will be conducted with applicants where additional information is required by the Awards Selection Committee.

All applications and supporting documentation as a PDF should be submitted via email to awards@cst.org and must be electronically postmarked on or before the deadline of May 31, 2017. By signing this application you are accepting the exclusive use of this information by CST.

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.
